COMPUTING SERVICES

MyUH Portal

Offering many essential services, MyUH Portal is the gateway to Laulima, email, class registration, account balances, and more.

Visit: tinyurl.com/2a6m15v

UH Username & Password

Your UH username is your electronic key to the university's online services, such as: MyUH Portal, Laulima, Google@UH (college email), UHMC Wi-Fi, software downloads, and more. Your UH username expires 180 days after graduation. To extend and preserve your UH user account, enroll in our UH 'Ohana services (tinyurl.com/mumknyz).

Discount Software Licenses

UHMC Bookstore offers discounted prices on software licenses for Microsoft Office 2011 (Mac) and 2013 (Windows) and Microsoft Office 365.

Time Warner Cable Boxes

The UHMC cable channel is now digital. If you're taking cable classes and have an analog television, you will need a digital cable converter box. To pick up your box, stop by the office (Ka'a'ike 220) with proof of registration, a picture ID, and your Time Warner Cable account number.

UHMC Wireless Network

To access the wireless, first visit your device's network settings and select UHMC. Second, connect to the internet by opening a browser and entering your UH username and password. You will then be able to access to the campus Wi-Fi.

Copyright Infringement

Unauthorized downloading and distribution of copyrighted materials is illegal and in violation of UH Policy E2.210: Use and Management of Information Technology Resources. If in violation, the suspected computer will be blocked immediately from accessing the UH network. If the computer associated with the copyright violation activities can be linked to an individual, the individual must contact and meet with the campus representative or the ITS Security Officer.

UHMC Wireless Pass-Through

Register your device for wireless pass-through which allows you to access the wireless network without the trouble of logging-in every time. You can register up to 10 wireless devices (e.g., laptops, tablets, and smart phones). Wireless pass-throughs are valid for one-year and are renewable for active UH students.

Register your device: tinyurl.com/lshpagj

Alerts at UH

The UH Alert emergency notification system alerts the university community in the event of a natural, health or civil emergency. Emergency messaging options include UH email & SMS/text messages.

Register for UH alerts: www.hawaii.edu/alert

INSTRUCTIONAL DESIGN SERVICES

Laulima

All of your registered classes are hosted at Laulima, the UH learning management system. Instructors post class syllabi, assignments, dues dates, quizzes and much more.

Graduation Laptop Incentive

Purchased a laptop, netbook, MacBook, or iPad after July 1, 2010? Students who successfully complete all program requirements and graduate from UHMC are eligible. Certificate of achievement graduates in a one-year program will get $200. Associates or bachelor's degree graduates are eligible for reimbursement of $400. Apply for reimbursement during your last semester prior to graduation only. Bring the following to Ka'a'ike 206 for verification:

- 1) Device
- 2) Receipt Verification
- 3) UH ID

LIBRARY SERVICES

The college library is the place for all your information needs. Through the library's website you will have 24/7 access to thousands of books, streaming video and music, and millions of articles. Here you will also find research guidance and discovery tools, mobile research applications, and productivity tools. Come into the library and use the campus internet and Wi-Fi in a comfortable, welcoming environment. You may borrow DVDs and CDs (for free!) from the library's extensive media collection. The library provides students with comfortable study areas and group study rooms. And if you find you need help with your research, talk to one of our information experts: the librarian at the reference desk.

Access the library at: maui.hawaii.edu/library.

UH ID CARD

Get your ID card at Ka Lama Computing Lab. Make sure you bring a photo ID and proof of current UH registration. UH ID cards may be loaded with money for printing at the library, TLC, or Ka Lama Computing Lab. You'll need to show your ID to borrow from the library. Students get a discount at the campus' Pā'ina Food Court when they show their ID.
